

Annual Reporting Requirement - Pennsylvania

Beginning in 2025, most domestic and foreign filing associations are required to file an annual report. The decennial reporting requirement that these entities were previously subject to was repealed last year. The fee for the new Annual Report is $7 for business corporations, limited liability companies, limited partnerships, and limited liability general partnerships. Nonprofit corporations and any LPs or LLCs with a not-for-profit purpose have a $0 fee. This law was signed into law by Governor Wolf on November 3, 2022.

The associations that may have a filing requirement include:

- Domestic business corporations
- Domestic nonprofit corporations
- Domestic limited liability (general) partnerships
- Domestic electing partnerships that are not limited partnerships
- Domestic limited partnerships (including limited liability limited partnerships)
- Domestic limited liability companies
- Domestic professional associations
- Domestic business trusts
- All registered foreign associations

The Annual Report must include the following information:

- Business name
- Jurisdiction of formation
- Registered office address
- Principal office address
- Name of at least one governor
- Names and titles of the principal officers
- Entity number issued by the Pennsylvania Department of State

The deadline for filing is based on the type of association. Corporations (both domestic and foreign) are due by June 30; limited liability companies (both domestic and foreign) are due by September 30; Limited partnerships, limited liability partnerships, business trusts, and professional associations (both domestic and foreign) are due by December 31.
